Dear John:

Enclosed are copies of a Notice of Allowance, a Notice of Allowability, an Examiner's Amendment, an Examiner Interview Summary Record, and a Notice of Patent Drawings Objection issued by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on July 7, 1986 in connection with this application. The issue fee and new drawings are due October 7, 1986.

I suggest that you take this opportunity to review this application with FTR to be sure that the scope of the claims is as desired and that all prior art of which FTR is aware has been brought to the Examiner's attention. You may also want to consider whether or not there have been any related inventions in which Mr. Frattolillo participated on which FTR may want to file a continuation-in-part application prior to the issuance of a patent on this application.

However, I know of no reason why this application should not be allowed to issue as a patent. Therefore, I have ordered new drawings and unless I receive contrary instructions from you before September 7, 1986, I will pay the issue fee.

Very truly yours,
